UDA Convention Camps

Convention Camps are the best option for exposing athletes to aspects of dance team as well as industry trends. These camps are held at resort or hotel locations and have night 3 evening off for open practice or team bonding.

Teams can participate in optional Home Routine Evaluations and bond through teambuilding activities. Each dancer will learn and be evaluated on 2 routines in a variety of levels and styles for A and B routines and participate in 4 master classes. Technical training includes a Team Technique Class as well as our new Tech Connect class and athletes receive additional education in Link Up Seminars. Athletes will all participate in our Game Day SNZ class to help better all aspects of their gameday.

At Convention camp, teams can qualify for Nationals, individuals can qualify for All-American and Coaches can participate in Educational Classes offered by Varsity University.
